

Pat Cotten

Pat Cotten, owner of Bending Tree Ranch in Damascus, AR specializing in raising TexMaster Meat Goats and TMG's. Pat began her journey into meat goats in 1997, while living in Conroe, TX. She has been active in educating other goat breeders along with Onion Creek Ranch in TX at the internationally known GoatCamp since 2001. Pat has spoken at various Meat Goat organizations over the years and is now sharing her knowledge with various Homestead Conferences in multiple states. She is also co-owner of the free online meat goat publication MeatGoatMania(tm). She’s excited to join Dewayne Hall at the Goat Education Center, where they’ll share hands-on demonstrations and helpful insights on goat and sheep care. They’ll cover topics like Parasitology and deworming, running fecals, injections, stomach tubing, ear tagging, castration, proper breeding and market animal selection, hoof care and trimming, and so much more! It’s a wonderful opportunity to learn and grow in animal husbandry.
